

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

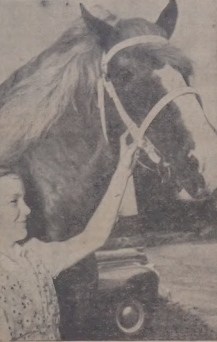

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

PET DEER WON'T GO AWAY—Sharing her bottle with a fawn is carrying generously too far. Thelma Doris Brock, N.Y. game protector's daughter. Raised by her parents and released, it keeps returning.

GRAND CHAMP OF CANADIAN FAIRS—Grand champion at various Canadian fairs 17 times, "Oma Vandenberghe", 2,200-pound Belgian stallion, gets admiring glances from heat beast of Paris, Ont., at the C.N.E. horse show.

DOCKHOUSE HOMES, FARM BUILDINGS BURNED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA—Defiant night raiders swooping down on settlement have brought terror, violence to the Dockhouse sect war in B.C. Peaceful enough are these effusive Dockhouse youths, residents of Burnaby settlement.

storm center of the trouble. Fanatics are terrorizing the region outside of Nelson, B.C. Group shown here styled "Sons of Freedom" seem far from warlike. Police plan to cope with further outbreaks.

BRITISH LUXURY LINER TO ATTRACT U.S. DOLLARS—Ready to play its part in Great Britain's drive to bring needed United States dollars to the Old Country, the liner Media is seen sailing majestically into New York harbor. The ship was making its maiden voyage from its docks at Southampton.

"SCIENTIFIC BURGLAR" QUIZZED—Called the leader of a gang of "ultra-modern" burglars, Donald G. Baker, (left), is questioned in Oakland, Calif., by police. Cliff A. Match, (center, right), following his arrest. The gang used an airplane, "walkie-talkies", and portable acetylene torches in their rednecking enterprises.

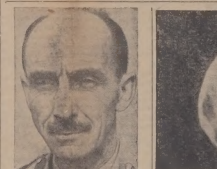

MOOSE WITH A TASTE FOR TEA—Moose Man Joe La Plante, the self-declared "Mayor of Grosvenor" Ont., who he knows all about moose. But even he was surprised when one of his young moose developed a taste for food tea.

WINNERS AND NEAR-WINNERS IN WORLD SWIMMING MARATHON CHAMPIONSHIP—Ben Gossel, Toronto; Steve Womack, Buffalo, Ohio, is congratulated by Bernice Looney, women's swim winner, after he had won $2,500 second prize money.

swimming marathon contest at the C.N.E. Jerry Kerschner of Columbus, Ohio, is congratulated by Bernice Looney, women's swim winner, after he had won $2,500 second prize money.

V.C. FOR MINISTER—Milton E. Orge, V.C., president of the University of New Brunswick, has been selected as minister of fisheries in the federal cabinet.

JAP NAIL IN HIS SKULL—A two-inch nail was removed from the brain of a Bataan death march survivor recently, but veterans administration surgeons said his life would hang in the balance for some days. In a delicate operation which required 2 1/2 hours, the attending neurosurgeon of the Fort Logan Veterans hospital removed the nail which Virgil Gomez, 27, of Cerro, N.M., said was pounded into his skull by a Japanese soldier while he played unconscious in a prison camp in the Philippines. Right: His wife is holding a nail about the size of that in his head, shown in the X-ray photo.

BIG ENOUGH TO EAT BOY—Quite a load for eight-year-old Bobby Mackay is this 25-pound, 47-inch muskie caught in the Trent river, Ont., by F. E. Lloyd of Cleveland, Ohio. Bobby, who weighs only 60 pounds, helped the successful angler take the fish out of the boat.

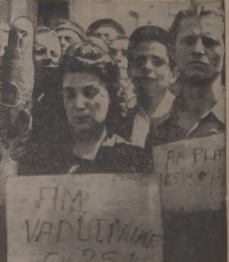

NIGHTLESS CAN CYCLE NOW—Painted shiny white, the first three-wheeled two-seater bicycle specially designed for use of blind persons was demonstrated at a Winton, Ont., bicycle plant. The inspiration of Robert W. Beath, shown here, it is really two bicycles in one, joined side by side, with a common front wheel, two pairs of handbars, and co-ordinated steering. With two sets of seats, pedals and rear wheels, the bicycle will enable a blind person to get the full exercise and enjoyment of cycling, with a sighted companion to guide the machine.

RHINO AND WART HOG, DAMON AND ETHIAS—Maudie, the baby rhino, and Charlie, the baby wart hog, gulp their morning milk by the gallon as they answer the breakfast call by Mrs. H. B. Stanton, a well-known woman game hunter, before being unloaded at a London, England, dock from the "Rhino Ark", which brought them from Africa. Mrs. Stanton collected a large number of animals consigned for skins and circuses. Charlie and Maudie became good friends on the trip and even shared the same quarters.

YOUNG ATLAS SHOWS HIS PROWESS—He hasn't carried the world on his shoulders yet, but 70-lb. Roy Horne, "little giant" of Tuscaloosa, Ala., who won't be four until Oct. 9, lifts his mother off the ground to demonstrate his amazing strength. Roy can also lift his 115-pound father, who, while declining to give his wife's weight, said she weighed more than he did. Tuscaloosa's wonder child talks in a deep and mature voice, and has a faint trace of a mustache.

THEY BROKE A PRICE-FIXING LAW—Following establishment of the Romanian currency, the government took drastic measures to prevent devaluation by speculators and black marketers. Backlash of the program decreed not only for the over-price seller, but also for the buyer. Here a woman who sold bread at 20 lei (fixed price is 14 lei), and the man who bought the bread are marching to the police station by citizens who saw the deal. The sign about their necks tells of the offense.

[illegible]

